

Please leave wisconsin's no-call list alone. I do not want to be exposed to telemarketing from a businesses or its affiliates simply because we have had contact with the business.

Better yet create a "Call List" that people sign up for if they want to be called by businesses or its affiliates. whoever signs up for that can be called, and no one else.